

Minority Outreach and Technical Assistance (MOTA)

Asian American Center of Frederick – Frederick County

Elizabeth Chung
629 North Market St.
Frederick, MD 21701
(301) 694-3355 Email: echung411@gmail.com

Asian American Center of Frederick (AACF) is a 501c3 non-profit organization whose vision is to build a stronger community through integration of services. The organization's strengths lie in the diverse and dedicated staff members, volunteers, and the established networks and relationships that allow for effective community and inter-agency collaborative partnerships.

AACF offers a diverse range of services and events, including interpretation services, assistance in obtaining citizenship, language and culture education programs, health advocacy and outreach programs, and much more.

For more information about Asian American Center of Frederick and the MOTA program in Frederick County, contact Ms. Elizabeth Chung at 301-694-3355.